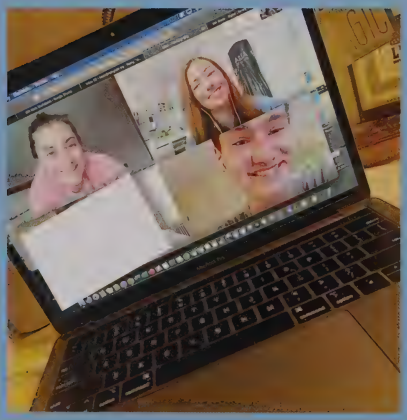
The yearbook club and advisors would like to thank the entire Rising Tide community for their help with this yearbook. Without your help, we could not do what we do. This year has brought a numerous amount of challenges, including working remotely to finalize and edit our final product, and we have all faced them together with strength and perseverance.
We are proud to be a part of the Rising Tide family.



& a special shout out to our dedicated, creative, hardworking, yearbook seniors! We appreciated all of your help and leadership throughout this year, (and especially during our "Google Hangout" meetings)! Thank you for everything, Jack, Lauren, and Maddy.

To the Class of 2020

Mrs. Day (Policastro): My favorite memory or string of memories with the Class of 2020 has to be going to Italy with this class on the 8th grade trip. It was my first trip to Italy and the kids made it the best and one of the most memorable trips I've ever been on!

Mrs. Doyon: I remember having a lot of fun teaching Math with that class. So many of them were highly motivated. We would go off on different tangents (haha) when someone would pose a question related to what we were doing.

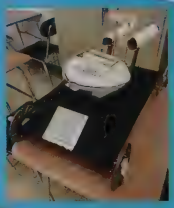
Mrs. Chapman: This was the last class I taught in the Middle School! They had a lot of personality and creative energy and they weren't afraid to be different. In particular, I remember Ina using a calligraphy pen as her regular pen.

Ms. Mina: My favorite memory is trying to get through the Louvre to see the highlights (I was very determined to see the Nike of Samothrace) in a short span of time with Cam and Maddie.

Mr. Carleen: There are so many fond memories of this group. They were quirky, fun, and intellectually curious. I remember spending one class just continuing to talk about their science lesson from the previous period. The students were so engrossed in their conversation, I just threw out the Social Studies curriculum for the day and continued to talk about how the gravity of one object interacts with everything else the universe. It was a surprisingly stimulating conversation to be having with 6th graders!

Ms. Lenkei: This was my first class at Rising Tide and I was able to start with the best group of 7th graders. I had no idea what I was doing and I was figuring things out day by day, but seeing these students everyday made me feel like I was doing something right because they were always excited to come into class

Mrs. Vendetti:
This was the year that built the best Solar Car of all time:



And when Emily S. brought me a very special gift:

Ms. Fornaciari: When I first started at Rising Tide, this class were just freshmen. So many of them made me feel so welcome and are a huge reason why I continued teaching. It has been great to see them mature and grow through these past four years, even while watching from afar on the middle school side. I have great memories of softball practices and games with Autumn, Katie, and Lily, as well as fond memories of late night yearbook editing with this group of seniors (thank you so much Jack, Maddy, Lauren!!) Wishing you all the best of luck in the future. We will miss you!!

Mrs. Carde: My favorite memory with the Class of 2020 is when I first joined Rising Tide during their sophomore year. Everyone was so excited to learn and eager to understand. We came together like a family within the Tide community, working together to achieve the goals that each student had set at the beginning of the school year. Each one showed me that they could accomplish anything that they set their mind to. They have all made me so proud to be a part of their experience here and the Rising Tide family.

From your teachers

Ms. Fierst: I had such a good time teaching US History with this group! Each class had so much personality and asked such good questions! You guys made my first year at Rising Tide really fun.

Ms. Higgins: I will always remember Civics Night 2019 with this class. Particularly, we had a very fun first aid demonstration with John Schelleng, Justin Trimberger, and Isaac Ryan that was as hilarious as it was informative.

Mrs. Montville: We had such a wonderful time on the France trip in February with many Seniors! They were such a pleasure to travel with and had such interesting, inquisitive, adventurous attitudes throughout the trip.

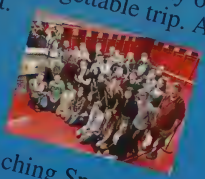
Mrs. Kimball: My favorite memories with the 2020 class were with Dr. Shara in our Biology class during March Mammal Madness. Everyone was so excited to see who was going to outlast the rest!! Super Fun!! Bengal Tiger Won!!

Dr. Shara: My favorite memory of the Class of 2020 is watching almost the entire grade together playing Gah-Gah at Camp Takodah. I also loved watching two of the quietest students in the grade jousting each other 30 feet in the air with foam swords… you know who you are.

Ms. Prentiss: The class of 2020 welcomed me warmly this year, my first year at Rising Tide. This class gives me so many reasons to be hopeful and excited for the future. They will change the world for the better, I have no doubt.

Ms. Viola: The Class of 2020 brought me so many laughs throughout their time in the Upper School. I enjoyed being in Spanish II with a bunch of you during the 2017-2018 school year- especially those "brain breaks"! It was so great working closely to those of you in Yearbook over the past two years (JS, MS, LK) we could not have done it without you! Class of 2020, I know this was not how you expected your time at Rising Tide to come to an end, but take it and be proud of how you were able to adapt during such a challenging time. You guys are rockstars.

Sra. Wilson: One of my favorite memories of the Class of 2020 is traveling to Germany with many of them in 2018. It was an amazing and unforgettable trip. And thankfully, Kashka did not get hurt.



I have had so much fun teaching Spanish to the Class of 2020! Many of these students I had the pleasure of teaching for three or four years. They're risk-takers, innovators, and have a great sense of humor. They will be truly missed!

Congratulations Class of 2020

Trevor Boivin

Dear Trevor,

During your high school years you've been involved in so many things that have shaped and molded you into the passionate, bright, thoughtful, hardworking young man that you are- debate club, model UN, boy-scouts, your religious journey to Scotland with Quest, your 1st job at the Central, and working at Chick-Fil-A. You're passionate about politics, history, and religion. And when you are passionate about something you're all in- there is no stopping you! We've watched in amazement as you've grown into the person you are today, and we're watching with great anticipation to see what you become...

Whatever you do, wherever you go, go with all your heart and all your spirit and you will do amazing things.

And as your favorite author once said...

"You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose." -Dr. Seuss

All our love, Mom and Tom

Owen Mackenzie

We are so proud of you! You have become a smart, talented, and thoughtful young man. Now onto the next chapter! Congratulations!

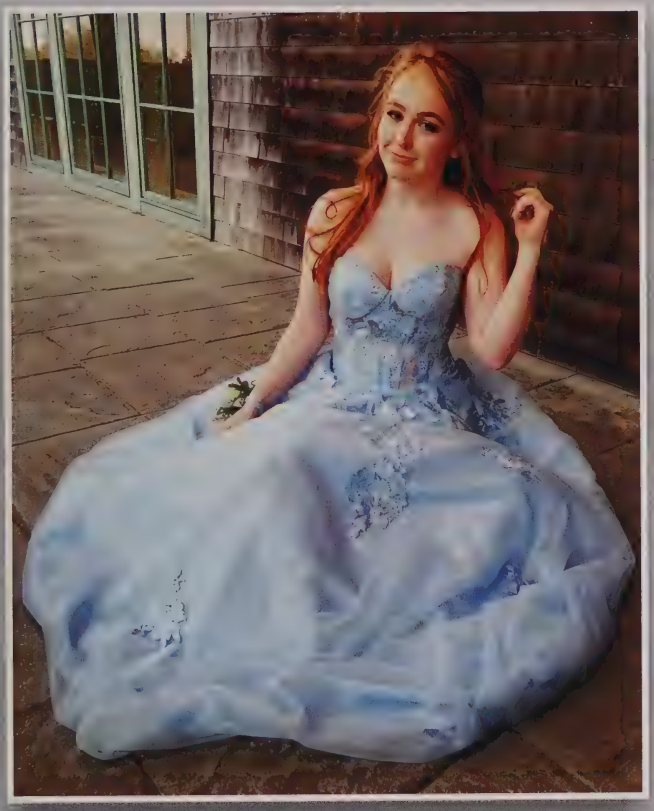
Lily Schultz

Lily, Dad and I are so proud of the young adult you have become. From the moment you came into our world everything changed for the good. My wish for you is to continue as you have always done to be true to yourself. It's one of you greatest qualities. you have always marched to the beat of your own drum without a care in the world. I love that about you. I have learned so much from you. your kind, caring spirit inspires those around you. You have been a tremendous role model to your brothers and sister. It has been one of the greatest honors of my life to be your Mom. You are enough Dad and I laid the foundation down the best we knew how and now it's up to you to carve out your own path. Your o to college and the next chapter in your life, you will create your story and I can't wait to see what that will be. Do what you love and it won't seem like work.
"Family like branches on a tree, we all grow in different directions, yet our roots remain as one."

I will leave you with this great wisdom, "Don't stop believin" and "When you get the chance to sit it out or dance, I hope you dance."

Love Always,
Mom, Dad, Gavin, Owen, and Vivian

Madelyn Quinn



Maddy-
I can't believe you are graduating from high school already! You have gone from my sweetpea baby, to a "Don't say those words" toddler, to a big kid we called "Maddy Actually..." because you would always try to argue your way out of everything. And now you're almost all grown up! You have become a beautiful, funny, smart teenager with the biggest heart. I am so proud of you! We love you more than the moon and all the stars and space.

Love,
Mom, Bella, Miranda, Nana, Papa, Grandfather, and all your Aunts, Uncles and Cousins

Nina Quattromani

Dearest Nina,

Congratulations, you have made an important milestone in your life! We are so proud of you. It has been a delight to see you blossom into a dedicated, hardworking, and thoughtful young woman.

One day you'll look fondly back at this yearbook and think about all the people and events that shaped your experience growing up in Plymouth and attending Rising Tide. Now it's time for a new chapter in life, and you get to be the author. We can't wait to see what happens next!

Our wish for you is that your life becomes all you want it to be. May your dreams stay big, and your worries stay small. Congratulations on your achievement.

Love, Mom, Dad and Izzy

Calder Felty

Daykota-Skye Diane Pioppi

Daykota,

Watching you grow from this pint size feisty, squishy face, curly haired toddler into a thoughtful, smart, kind, loving (yet still feisty) young lady has been such a pleasure. Sitting here writing this we are filled with so many emotions. What an amazing journey so far. Where ever you go from here, we know it will be nothing short of spectacular! You are now and forever will be our Kota Bear.

Love Mom & Dad

Morgan Derby

We can't believe this this day is actually here! It seems like just yesterday that we'd wait to see who's name you would call out each morning to come get you in your crib, each of us wanting to hear our own name. You have amazed us at every step of the way and continue to do so. Every time you were challenged, and we thought "this might be the one that gets her", you dug in and charged ahead and won; making us even prouder. We are so very proud of you and are excited to see what the future brings, or we should say "what you bring to the future". As you make the jump into your next adventure remember to not pull the parachute ripcord too early; sometimes the fear and excitement of the freefall is the best part.

We love you and you make our lives better every day. Love, Mom and Dad

Mercedes Herrara

Our daughter came to us while we were both in the military, unexpected and yet most joyous! She is kind, generous, disciplined and responsible. We couldn't have asked for a more beautiful person to enter our lives. We are so impressed with her as she goes on to do great things. Our admiration for her accomplishments is unwavering.

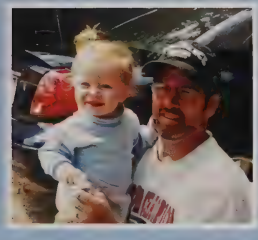
In a world where you can be anything, just be yourself, make good choices and good things will come!

We are excited for you. We believe in you. We love you.

Mom and Dad

Victoria Rice

Dad and I are ready to take a step back now and watch your life unfold. It will be our biggest change and challenge yet. Embrace all that life gives you. We may not know what the future holds, but I think we can make a few predictions. You will continue to sore and grow. You will remember the lessons of your childhood and apply them as needed.



Remember to contribute to your community. Even in the most challenging times never forget that you have a voice and power to change things. You are now of voting age, so vote wisely.

Only spend what you have. Being broke in college or anywhere after high school is a rite of passage. One day you'll look back and smile on these days. Never forget you have a soft place at home, even if I take over your closet. Your dad and I are so proud of you. Enjoy your graduation, you have worked so hard, you deserve it.
Love Always & Forever.

Jenna Boardman

Quite simply, it has been a pleasure to watch you grow. As your parents, I suppose we'd like to think we had something to do with how you turned out (smart, independent, hardworking, determined, kind, sweet...) but we're pretty sure you did it mostly by yourself, and we are 100% certain that you own the tools to succeed in the rest of your life- whatever that may bring.

We are so proud.

With all our love,

Mom and Dad

How did we get here so fast? All of the stories read and written, games played, inventions created, Barbie hours, Lego sessions, soccer fields, hikes, bike rides, and ski trips. All of the laughs, the tears, the successes and failures. This journey with you has been spectacular to say the least. We are so thankful and blessed to have been chosen to be your family. Your gifts and talents are endless and have been a joy to watch develop and grow. We are truly bursting with pride. From here: know yourself. This is your journey and yours alone. No one else needs to, or should be expected to, understand all of it. Be present in every moment. Find your passion and live it. We will support and love you every step of the way, Pal. The world is waiting for you! Love Mom, Dad, Sarah & Sydney.

Katie Ferrante

These years were short. From The Little Engine That Could and the Big Chase to Hop on Pop to Shel Silverstein to Lemony Snicketts to Wonder and now graduation. Reading with you was always a favorite activity of ours. All the years and time traveling from one softball field to another might seem like a chore to many but to us it was so special. The one on one time in the car just chatting or seeing the joy on your face as you competed successfully at a high level is a memory we will cherish forever. Watching you grow from a shy, quiet girl to a confident, driven woman has been an absolute joy and privilege. You have inspired and touched so many with your kindness and friendship. We can't wait to see all the great things you will accomplish in your life and look forward to all the new memories that will be made with you. You truly are a brilliant shining star and we so admire your fearless faith in God.
We love you always.

Brian Freedman

Dear Brian, Congratulations!!!

You are an amazing person, gifted and kind, and we are proud to be your family. Throughout the years your intellect, compassion, wisdom, creativity, and strength have been an inspiration. The authenticity and serious dedication with which you approach your life has allowed you to walk multiple paths at once, melding your many joys (helping others, science, math, writing, language, acting, music) into one rich path of curiosity and an insatiable quest to know more. You truly love learning for learning's sake and that will continue to carry you forward with integrity and wonder as you carve out the next phases of your path in the world. Thank you for being exactly who you are.

We love you deeply and always.
Love, Mom and Dad and Evan.

Approach it and there is no beginning; follow it and there is no end. You can't know it, but you can be it, at ease in your own life. Just realize where you come from: this is the essence of wisdom.

Emily Gouvia

Oh Emily, our little ray of sunshine
Everything was so perfectly aligned
This is the amazing story of you
Starting a journey entirely new

We spent our days full of laughter and fun
Kindergarten started and your independence begun
Those early years I hold close to my heart
You were eager to learn from the very start

From chorus concerts to the amazing egg drop
Elementary school was exciting, you didn't want to stop
Do you remember the overnight museum trip?
Dad went with you attached at the hip

As middle school began you were excited
Coming home building your diorama, you were delighted
You were challenged in a way that only made you grow
You were wise beyond your years, a wisdom in a shiny red bow

You were bound for greatness as High school began
Off to France was your master plan
Being in automotive was your elective
You learned so much about cars with a new perspective

We are so proud of the young adult you are
We hope you reach for the sky our shining star
One can dream my little butterfly
We love you up to the moon and back and as big as the sky

Emily,

It seems like only yesterday you were a curious toddler. Today you are incredible young adult. We are beyond proud of you. Things have not always been easy and care free, but you have shown us what it means to have such strength. You went to school every day with a smile on your face looking perfectly healthy but being in constant pain. You never complained. You have taught us what it means to face adversity and not back down. We are incredibly blessed to call you our daughter. We are excited to see where your path will lead you. Always stay kind and be true to yourself. Be a leader and not a follower. Thank you for being an amazing daughter. We love you more than words could ever express!

Love,

Dad, Mom, And Mackayla

Angelina,

We blinked and our sweet little "Nina," with her beautiful smile and a mischievous twinkle in her eyes, grew up in what seemed like an instant!
That bright and inquisitive three year old who stayed up late into the night wondering "How DO you get to Sesame Street?" has become a strong and confident young woman ready to take on the world. You've worked so hard and accomplished so much over the past four years! Continue to challenge yourself like you did in Alaska and at FLC and you will be unstoppable! You are a devoted and compassionate daughter, sister, and friend with a unique sense of humor and we love you so very much and are so very proud of you!

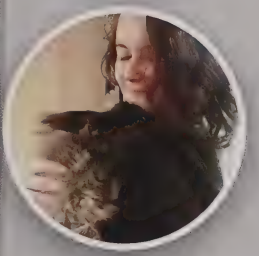
John, we are so very proud of the little boy you once were and of the young man you have become. Our family has been blessed to have you as the glue between your sisters. You have always been a kind and gentle soul with a sharp wit and you have made us laugh from the time you were a baby. Your natural curiosity, willingness to work hard, your leadership ability, and positive attitude will bring you far in the world and we can't wait to see all the amazing things you will do. We love you, sweet baby John!

Mom, Dad, Caroline, and Katherine

Armandea Connelly



Long before you were born we speculated on whom you might be. We wondered if you would have mom's eyes or dad's and other questions of how that genetic lottery might affect you. We talked of what our child would be: smart, resourceful, witty, gorgeous, talented in some unknown aspect (probably not coordination related), and above all, deeply wanted and beloved. "The moment I heard my first love story, I started looking for you," the guiding passage of our lives was never truer than our anticipation of who we would discover in you.

In the flash of an eye that you have been our daughter we have discovered that we failed to dream big enough of you. We received brilliance so blinding, a wit so insightful you challenge us each day, and so deeply talented in art that we are all at once in awe and (repelled) that we must always look further. You are our reason to be and the transitional force of our entire lives that a few words here can hardly document or celebrate.

You are just now at the end of one chapter and the beginning of the next. Whatever you do going forward into these new adventures you have us ever at your back, ever the cheerleaders, ever the devoted parents ready to remind you that you are loved in your bones, that you are so much more than we ever imagined and you can be everything you dream and more. With the deepest love, Dad, Mom, and Quinn.

Dante Sologaistoa

"As you move forward in life, Dante, know that everything you need to create a beautiful life is already within you and you've already begun.

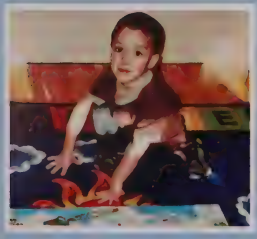
Your natural curiosity and adventurous spirit has fueled your love of learning, and thankfully, has only gotten you into a tiny bit of trouble.

Your openness and positivity has brought you wonderful experiences and helped you to develop in the best possible ways. You have always had an intuitive knack of making anything you are a part of better.

Your sincere kindness and moral integrity has drawn the absolute best of friends and mentors into your life. You see people clearly and they always seem to stand a little bit taller in your presence.

Your life has had many difficulties, but your resilience and your strong sense of who you are has repeatedly kept you grounded when everything was falling apart around you. While your immense sense of gratitude has brought you joy in the most difficult of times.

We are so grateful to have you as part of our family and can't wait to hear about all your future adventures. Thank you for always being so good to us. Never forget that there is nothing you could ever do, say, or become that would lessen our love for you. We will always be here for you, our dear dear Dante.



Autumn Studley

Autumn,
Where have the years gone? What happened to our little girl? You've grown into a beautiful, kind, intelligent and funny young lady in the blink of an eye. Through the years we've watched you grow with such pride in our hearts, as you worked hard for your good grades, played softball, got your first job and learned to drive. There were a few bumps in the road along the way, but your strong will and determination kept you on track. We love your sense of humor and treasure that we still get a hug goodnight every night.

Don't underestimate yourself! Always remember you are capable of great things. Experience is the best teacher, but it is also the most expensive, spend it wisely! Live right, laugh loudly and love deeply. Wherever life takes you, whatever path you choose; we wish you happiness and success. We will always be here for you.
Love you. Mom and Dad

Justin,

We are so proud of the self-sufficient, influential, intelligent young man you have become. You demonstrate incredible leadership skills on and off the field, and are a fantastic role model to your teammates. It brings us great joy to see the genuine passion you feel for cooking, and we know that Johnson and Wales is just the place for you to flourish. You put so much care into what you do, and your dedication will be reflected in the work you do. We cannot wait to eat at your future restaurant; (hopefully will include your specialized grilled cheeses!) As Thomas Keller said "Success is measured by the memories you create". Now go make your memories.

With love always,

"Tell me, what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life?" -Mary Oliver

Ina,

Since the day you were born you have been an extraordinary person, filled with determination and soul. For eighteen years, you have thrilled us, made us proud, and proven that the world is better because you are in it. You are about to begin a grand adventure, and I could not be more certain that it is the perfect one for you- because you chose it, and worked so hard for it.

I will always think of you as my little girl in strumpfhose and mardi-gras beads. But you have become this incredibly beautiful, miraculous woman who I know will make her mark, wherever she goes in her wild, precious life.

I love you, Ina Beina.

Love, Mom

2019-2020

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and Governor Baker's order to close schools since March 13, 2020, this yearbook was not able to be finished at Rising Tide. While this yearbook might seem different from our previous ones, we had to adapt to our situation. We are so proud of our product and we hope you enjoyed!
